Containing Illustrations, Interesting Matter, and Valuable Statistical Information, compiled expressly for this Annual.

The Editor's Introductory

I have only been able to put in this book the information which has been sent me, or as I have gleaned it from the Herald of Gospel Liberty, the Christian Sun and other sources. A few conferences are not reported because I could get no response to repeated requests; but I feel that the time is coming when all the conferences will be in. It takes time and patience to work up a statistical report; and some of the conference clerks have expressed the opinion that their conference is so small and, seemingly, doing so little that it is not worth while to report at all.

Ah, how human we are! We somehow get it into our heads that only "big" things count; we forget that God does not look at things through human eyes. Every minister, every church, every conference doing work for the Master is "big" in His sight; and it is frequently the case that the so-called "little" minister, church and conference does the most lasting good. Take heart, "little" minister, church or conference, for your work is "big" in the estimation of One who knows how to put the right estimation on things, if you are doing things in His way for Him.

Many of our ministers have gone to "the home over there" since the last ANNUAL was published; some of them in the full strength of manhood, and some who have been waiting quietly for release for some years. Some wives and widows of our ministers, too, have been called to "higher ground;" what a vacancy their going makes! How much of the success of the minister depends upon his wife! I have heard many a minister say, "What I have been able to do for Christ, has been made possible, largely, by the life and influence of my wife." Noble words, and happy the man who can, and will, truthfully say them. Some deacons, too, have fallen by the wayside, and they will be missed in the churches where their lots were cast.

I desire to heartily thank all who have, in any way, contributed to make this little volume what it is; and I trust as it goes into the homes of our people that it will answer some questions asked; give some information sought for, and cause all to feel that there is still a tremendous work for the people called "Christians" to do "in His name."

“OTHER DAYS”

BY REV. ELIZA L. BROWN

*Those “other days,” gone now beyond recall,
Sare in the mystic aisles of memory!
The hours that gave us greatest peace and joy,
We fain would them again in vision see.*

*The happy days that brought the poet’s song,
And the musician’s most entrancing chords.—
The artist’s rare creations that at times
Addressed the soul like fitly spoken words.*

*The dear ones vanished, O the precious days
That knew their presence, and their voices heard,
Their kind words spoken, and their loving ways.
Again by these the heart is thrilled and stirred!*

*The sad days when the tears fell down like rain,
When to the home death’s silent angel came,
When God alone could ease the heart’s dull pain,
And have us say, “Yet, blessed be His name.”*

*O loving Father! Let my words and deeds,
And meditations of my heart, I pray,
Be such to-day that it may sometime be
A beautiful, a blessed “other day.”*

Living Our Principles

BY REV. O. B. WHITAKER, D. D.,

President Union Christian College, Merom, Ind.

Christ, our only head; Christian, our name; the Bible, our only rule of faith and practice; individual interpretation, the inalienable right of all; Christian character, our test of fellowship; and the union of the followers of Christ in universal Christian fellowship our plea. What an honor to live such principles! What an honor to be a member of a body whose head is not merely a president, a king, an emperor or a pope, but whose head is Christ and to know that God Himself "gave him to be the head over all things unto the church!" What an honor to bear worthily the name Christian. What an honor to hold as our rule of faith and practice the only orthodox creed in all the world, the only creed that has ever been written by "holy men of God (who) spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost," the Bible! What an honor to feel that God has authorized us to "search the Scriptures," that He has welcomed us into the very bosom of His word, that there stands between us and the Bible no church or committee or council, no preacher, priest or pope, but that individual interpretation was vouchsafed to every disciple when Christ Himself said, "one is your Master, even Christ, and ALL YE ARE BRETHREN!" What an honor to possess the Christian character that would admit to such a fellowship, and what an honor to be a member of a body that possesses as its constituting quality the highest and noblest and best of all earthly attainments—Christian character. What an honor to stand under Christ and on the Bible and feel within ourselves a beating, throbbing, palpitating heart of love that would reach out to all the followers of Christ with a plea for the union of all that love the Lord. LIVING OUR PRINCIPLES means all this,—and MORE.

Our forefathers settled the timber covered lands of Ohio and Indiana and Illinois for the purpose of living the principles of agriculture; but they were living those principles not less when they were felling the soil-cumbering forests, or grubbing the soil-sapping roots, or destroying the grain-choking weeds, than when they were planting the seeds of corn or wheat, or reaping the ripened harvest.

Washington was living our principles of liberty and equality of man not less when he was crossing the dangerous Delaware, or leading his battling troops in the face of the thundering British cannon at the Brandywine or Germantown, than when he signed the Declaration of Independence or assisted in drafting our Constitution.

When God directed Moses to lead the "children of Abraham" into the land "which he should after receive for an inheritance," it was for the purpose of living the principles of the Mosaic institution and the laws of God. But think you the children of Israel were living those principles less as with weapons for battle they followed Joshua in the wars against the heathen and idolatrous nations which God had commanded them to destroy than as they followed the same great leader peacefully through the parted waters of the river Jordan? Or think you that Joshua was living those principles less as he led the armies of Israel against idolatrous king after king until thirty-one crowned heads had fallen beneath his mighty sword than were the priests that were peacefully offering sacrifices upon the altars of burnt offerings?

Were not the children of Israel living their principles when they rebuilt the walls of Jerusalem, of whom it is written, "Every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other held a weapon?" Think you he was living his principles less with the hand that held the weapon than with the one that wrought in the work?

Was Jesus living His principles less when He "went into the temple of God and cast out them that sold and bought in the temple," than when He wept in sympathy with the sisters of Lazarus? Or was He not living His principles as truly when He preached in Jerusalem against the sects of His day, denouncing their leaders as "scribes and Pharisees," "fools," "blind guides," "serpents," "generations of vipers," as when He preached to His disciples the Sermon on the Mount?

But illustrations are endless. The conclusion is irresistible. It is this: To live a principle of truth means to oppose the corresponding error,—and this means war as long as that error exists. To plant the seeds of truth successfully means to destroy the weeds of corresponding untruth. To espouse righteousness means to oppose iniquity. To "love the good," means to "hate the evil,"—and the best evidence of the former is the manifestation of the latter. Therefore to live our principles of truth means to oppose the evils against which they stand.

Moreover, to live our principles means to preach our principles, and to preach them where they are needed,—among our own people, among them that do not know them and in the very camp of the enemy.

The history of the past has shown that without exception the path of peace winds through the rugged rocks of tribulation, and that the only road to truth leads over the hill of opposition.

He is ignorant of the history of the Christian Church that does not know that its periods of greatest growth, of greatest power, of greatest influence, of greatest prosperity, have been the periods of greatest agitation, discussion, and war against the evils against which our principles declare; and the periods of least growth, of stand-still, of back-sliding, have been the periods of least agitation and contention—the periods when our men have had their eyes on their commissary more than on their captain.

The very nature of our principles makes them a declaration of war, for each of them embodies a truth against an existing and a prevailing untruth. War—not against the followers of Christ, but in their behalf; not against the faith of our brethren, but in defense of liberty of conscience and faith; not even against sectarians, but against sectarianism.

My brethren, let us carry forward our glorious flag of CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP, painted upon the silken fabric of God's eternal WORD, and supported upon the staff of CHRISTIAN CHARACTER,—let us carry it forward through the very midst of the plains of sectarianism, and plant it upon the mountain tops of everlasting truth;—and God will give us the victory. Thus shall we be LIVING OUR PRINCIPLES.

Man awakens for himself an interest, a suspense, a hope, almost a confidence that something important is about to happen, that something is in preparation, that man is not an end, but merely a way, an interest, a bridge, a great promise.—Nietzsche.

Never have I seen Thee so clearly as when I was breaking bread to the hungry; never have I loved Thee so dearly as when I soothed a brother's pain. I sought the friendless children, and I discovered Bethlehem; I visited the humble homes and I found Nazareth.—George Matheson.

By emphasizing the heroic side of Christianity we shall win and keep our children. The fidelity to brave and loyal ancestors is a religion in itself—a religion that is working wonders in the world to-day. The faith and courage of our fathers did much to persuade their sons.—Robertson Nicoll.

MY OLD INDIANA HOME

*The fairest of a lifetime is childhood's ruddy glow
 And the beauties of the orchard where the flowering asters grow;
 The violets of the hillside and the pansies by the way,
 Are the loveliest of the Springtime when youthful life is gay.
 The memories of the meadow and the songsters of the wood,
 Just make the child-life pleasant as of sweetest babyhood;
 And thus our minds meander to the fairest spots we know,
 To the Old Indiana Homestead, where the flowering asters grow.*

*The bluebells of the hillside and the purple of the vale,
 And the songsters of the treetops add cheer unto the tale;
 While the rivers by the roadside and the cedars on the hill,
 Are pleasures of the Springtime that youthful hearts may fill.
 The modest little mayflower and its maiden buttercup,
 And the little men and women that fill the forest up,
 To cheer the dogwood blossoms and the redbud up above,
 Just fill the woods with gladness and the joyousness of love.*

*But let us now meander to the fields so rich and green,
 Where the clover red and white-topped, with blushing pink, is seen;*

*The purple of the lilac and the peach and apple red
 That forms such splendid network with the leaves and vines o'er-head.*

*And plums and pears and cherries and fruits of every clime
 Entwined by the morning glory and the four-o'clock of time;
 The balm, the crab, and the buckeye, and the native trees that grow
 In my Old Indiana Homestead, and my native Ohio.*

Thankfulness and Thoughtfulness

BY REV. W. D. SAMUEL.

President American Christian Convention.

Our English word thankful is allied from its Anglo-Saxon derivation to our word thankful. There can be no thankfulness without thoughtfulness, mindfulness of blessings received. We are apt to lose sight of the blessings of life, they flow in such an uninterrupted stream that we come to think of them as a matter of course. If somewhere away down among the earth's strata, among the leaves and ferns of past ages, as you sought, you should find your name spelled out in the rock of coal, how astonished you would be! Yet there is a place where your name was written before there was a fern leaf. God wrote out your name on the scroll of life and began laying up blessings for you. He has stored the earth, interlaced it with rich metallic veins, filled it with limestone, coal and gas, that it might be ready for us when we came into being. Nature, in her every district, is offering thanks to God, from the heavens which "declare the glory of God" and the firmament which "showeth his handiwork," down to the dew-drop which sparkles in the colors of the rainbow. Every student of nature becomes surprised that beauty is born out of such strange elements, and that there should be such harmony of forces. Yet these are but the results of God's thoughtfulness of His children.

Here we are just at the dawning of nineteen hundred and ten. Are there not a million things for which we should be grateful to Him who plans for us? Nineteen hundred and nine has been a year of manifold blessings to us in our nation, our homes, our churches and our Convention work. And with a heart overflowing with gratitude to God I want to send greetings to every member of the American Christian Convention, asking you to join with me in praises to our good Father for the prosperity that has come to us.

It is true our horizon has been clouded occasionally and our hearts saddened by the "black camel" kneeling at the doors of some of our brotherhood and carrying away some of our strongest characters. I cannot refer to all; may I refer briefly to our lamented brother, Dr. McWhinney. We shall miss him at our next Quadrennial Convention. His death was a great loss to us. The pen has dropped from his facile fingers, his great brain has ceased to send to us his beautiful messages of love. But even in this our loss we have much to be thankful for. We should never tire thanking God for the great soul of Dr. McWhinney. For his beautiful spirit and strong character. Let us emulate his virtues and be true to the cause which he loved to his dying day. He loved the Christian Church. Her principles were dear to him because they are as broad as the mind of Jesus.

Then we should be thankful for the work of those who still survive and are doing heroic things for our beloved Church. Men who are putting their life into the work of the Church notwithstanding much unjust and unkind criticism. No man is perfect, we all make mistakes, but no amount of persuasion could make me believe that our dear brethren who are carrying the burdens of our denominational work purposely make mistakes. They are true men, sacrificing men, clean men, broad-minded men. Thank God for them.

OUR DEPARTMENTAL WORK

We should be thankful for the good work being done along all lines of our work. I wish to mention first of all our mission work. There is much heroic work being done by this department, both upon the part of the Board and our missionaries in the field. A beautiful letter has just come to me, written for our Ladies' Missionary Society, from Rev. T. E. White of Porto Rico. I had the pleasure of reading it to the society recently. It stirred our hearts. Though there might have been just cause for complaint because of the arduous labors of the missionaries, yet not a word came from his pen. What heroism! I wish other societies might read a personal letter from these noble spirits. The same is true of both Home and Foreign mission workers; they are sacrificing men and women.

Then our Board is doing all they possibly can to make ends meet. They show a degree of financial ability in handling the work committed to them. They have no desire to squander our means but husband our resources the best they can. Before complaining any, put yourself in their place. We should be thankful for their heroic efforts to promote the Kingdom.

OUR COLLEGES.

Truly we have much to be thankful for in our colleges. Never in our history has better work been done. Yea, I believe our colleges are doing the best work in their history. They are better equipped than ever before. They have professors of choice minds and characters. I speak advisedly when I say that the faculties of the various colleges are made up of men and women of the highest Christian character. They believe the Bible to be God's inspired Book, and so teach it. Therefore those who graduate from these institutions of learning will go forth into the world to exemplify the beauties of our religion. Those who go out to preach will preach the pure gospel, the new birth and the necessity of holy living.

We should be thankful that a new college has been added to our number. I mean the college at Jireh, Wyoming. Thank God for the heroes of the cross who man this new institution of learning. We know who they are, true to the core, enamored with the principles of the Christians. I look for great things from Jireh. We should see to it that they are not handicapped in their work. Let us thank God and take courage.

PUBLISHING DEPARTMENT.

We should be thankful for our publishing department. We look forward to the Quadrennial Convention of 1910 when we shall go up with the report, out of debt and a surplus in the treasury for church extension or some noble work. We should thank God for our Sunday-school literature, second to none in the land. Then we should thank God in one full tongued chorus for the best religious periodical in this country. I mean the Herald of Gospel Liberty. I do not hesitate to say that it is second to none. It has never been better. It is religious in the truest sense. The editor is to be congratulated on sending out such a paper. Brethren, have we not many things to be thankful for? All together, let us say, "No more criticism;" but with hearts filled with love for each other say: "Here is my heart and hand for the best possible work for 1910."

We shall soon meet in our next great Convention. Let us begin now to pray God to keep us from harboring anything in our hearts to carry to that Convention that might cause a jarring note. I believe we will. Let us determine that 1910 shall be our best year for work. I believe that this quadrennium has been an educational one, and that the foundation is being laid for the best work the Christians have ever done.

I want to thank one and all for all the kind, good things you have said to me and assure you that I shall be true to the trust committed to me.

The Foreign Mission Department

BY REV. M. T. MORRILL,

Foreign Mission Secretary American Christian Convention.

The reports from our foreign fields give the following figures: Churches in Japan, 11; members, 747; Sunday-schools, 28; enrollment, 2,095; money raised, $493.64.

Churches in Porto Rico, 5; members, 136; Sunday-schools, 8; enrollment, 465; money raised, $189.65.

Totals: Churches, 16; members, 883; Sunday-schools, 36; enrollment, 2,560; money raised on the fields, $683.29. This is a decided gain over last year's figures.

Other interesting figures might be included, as follows: There are four Endeavor Societies in Japan and two in Porto Rico; the Tokyo Christian Theological School now has a faculty of three finely trained men, and six students (three in regular courses;) the Utsunomiya Christian Girl's School has a faculty of four, including the principal, and eighteen pupils.

During the year one outpost in Japan has become a real church, thus adding one to the total number of churches.

One church building has been erected in Japan, at Sendai, by money specially given for the purpose. One church building has been erected in Porto Rico by the Porto Rico Christian Conference, at Canas, a suburb of Ponce. A lot has finally been secured in Arus, the deed being properly written for the same (negotiations have been going on for more than two years). Material was gathered for a small building at Manzanilla, but was washed out to sea by high water.

During the year Miss Alice True has returned to her post in Japan, and Miss Jennie Mishler to her post in Porto Rico. Miss Mishler located at Santa Isabel, one of the most difficult fields in the whole island, and has been doing heroic service. That field is now as hopeful as the best, and she has organized a church.

On the whole the reports from the fields are most flattering, and give evidence that our Missions are more effective than ever. There is nothing lacking except equipment, and that we must supply by degrees, as we are able. A very interesting fact has developed within a year, namely, the realization that the force of missionaries in Japan is far from adequate, and there is a general call for reinforcements.

It will be remembered that October 1, 1908, there was a foreign mission deficit of $4,074.15, part of it dating back two years, part of it due to the work of the year ending in 1908. During the past year strict economy was practiced, and the same amount of work was carried on in our foreign fields and in our administrative department (except that not quite so much was spent in travel and publicity), while the increase in the deficit was only $777.70. That was partly provided for by money that was pledged but not paid before October 1. One bill was paid which should have been paid the year before, which increased the deficit this year by $500. Had it been paid last year, the figures would have been in our favor this year. The total expenses of our foreign mission work last year was $14,023.68.

But little has been done toward the proposed Indian Mission, which was started by the New Jersey brethren. Rev. W. F. Jordan is agent of the American Bible Society, in Havana, Cuba. Meantime considerable interest has developed in mission work in British Guiana and the Barbadoes Islands. The brotherhood subscribed money to send Rev. S. A. Howell to South America to organize the work just mentioned. This has entailed some responsibility, and it is interesting to know where the end of the matter may be.

Rev. C. P. Garman's Bible Class, Tokyo, Japan

During the current missionary year it is proposed to raise the sum of $18,000 for foreign missions, and round out the quadrennium with the best year in our missionary history. Thus far the indications are very good, and the brethren seem to be awakening to the opportunity. The Foreign Mission Secretary appeals to all who may read this to plan their offerings with a view to helping raise the $18,000. We can easily do it, with the co-operation of all our churches.

The Woman's Board for Foreign Missions

BY REV. ELLEN G. GUSTIN, President.

The Woman's Board for Foreign Missions, in connection with the "Mission Board," is auxiliary to the American Christian Convention. The charter members and the Certificate Life-members now number one hundred and four members. The methods of general work are through the Conference Woman's Boards which are auxiliary to it; and the Woman's Missionary Societies of the churches, which are auxiliary to the Conference Woman's Boards. No Conference boards have been organized in the past year. Some of the boards have few auxiliaries, others have made excellent progress in the work of forming societies and educating the members of the churches upon the subject of missions. One Conference Board has fourteen auxiliaries, with four hundred and ninety-nine members. Nine of these societies have Literature and Mite-Box Secretaries, six have Mission Study Classes and nine have Cradle Rolls with a total enrollment of one hundred and twenty-six. It has also "The Living Link" which raises funds outside of the general work, for a mission in Washington and a special work in Japan. This board has thirty-one Life-members, and has raised in the past year the generous amount of $864.27.

All the Board's auxiliaries have not accomplished these excellent results, but from year to year there has been commendable growth and increasing knowledge of the necessity of Christian missions, and there are very hopeful signs of constantly increasing earnestness and broadening effort among the noble women of our churches as the years go on.

The larger part of our Conference Woman's Boards are organized for both Home and Foreign missions and the funds raised are divided between the two boards.

The amount raised by the Foreign Board in the past year is over $2,000, not as large as in some years.

The total amount raised and used by the Mission Board, for the work in Japan, is $32,333.39.

The present officers are: Ellen G. Gustin, President, Attleboro, Mass.; Rev. Emily K. Bishop, Vice-President, Dayton, O.; Mrs. R. W. Coxen, Recording Secretary, New Bedford, Mass.; Miss Annie N. Libby, Corresponding Secretary, Saco, Maine; Mrs. Mary J. Batchelor, Treasurer, New Bedford, Mass.

Missionary Cradle Roll, Superintendent, Mrs. Emma S. Powers, Dayton, Ohio; Literature and Mite-Box Secretary, Rev. Emily K. Bishop, Dayton, Ohio.

Attleboro, Mass.

There is but one way in which man can ever help God—that is, by letting God help him; and there is no way in which His name is more guiltily taken in vain than by calling the abandonment of our own work the performance of His,—Ruskin.

THE MISSION BOARD OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Neglected Continent

South America has been called the "neglected continent," meaning that for years Protestant Christianity has not entered the open doors nor done its duty by our sister continent. And hence religious and social conditions there are very bad.

A missionary work started among the colored population and the coolies in British Guiana now interests the Christians, and a brief history of the undertaking will not be amiss.

Several years ago a colored brother from that country was visiting in the United States, endeavoring to secure funds for Christian work in Guiana. He met with repulse and rebuff on many sides, until he was cordially greeted by Rev. S. A. Howell, of Newport News, and given a hearing in Brother Howell's church. Inquiry followed relative to the Christians. The visiting brother was given information, and went back to South America much impressed with what he had seen and heard while at Brother Howell's. When the results of the visit to the United States were rehearsed, the interested people in British Guiana decided to proceed in harmony with the principles and polity of our denomination. Considerable literature was sent to them; and a Christian Church was organized in Georgetown.

Correspondence was continued with Rev. Mr. Howell, with Prof. H. E. Long, and at intervals with the Foreign Mission Secretary. Many appeals were made for assistance from this country to organize the work already started in Georgetown and the Barbadoes Islands, and to ordain one or more elders, that the mission might have government recognition. A colored brother named Joseph A. Johnson was leader in the mission, exhibiting much ability, and he had gathered quite a church and body of assistants.

Last spring Rev. Mr. Howell was impressed with the duty of going to British Guiana. He made appeals for funds through the Herald of Gospel Liberty, which appeal was heeded by the brethren at large, and sufficient money was quickly sent to the Mission Treasurer, Dr. Bishop. Forthwith

Rev. S. A. Howell

Mr. Howell and Rev. N. E. Higgs, a brother minister, went to Georgetown, traveled over the field on both sides of the Demerara River, met the workers and congregations, preached in churches and halls and on the street corners to great throngs of people. The ministers of other denominations welcomed them cordially.

After seeing the field and work, and after due examination of the men, Mr. Howell and Mr. Higgs ordained to the Christian ministry Joseph A. Johnson, and licensed five persons, namely, Griffith, Layne, Headley, Phillips, and Eve. Complete organization was effected at Georgetown, with stations at Canal No. 1, ten miles from Georgetown on the other side of the Demerara, at Baggottstown, and at Pleisance on the East Coast. Proper provision was also made for the church in Pinkett's Land, Barbadoes, British West Indies, where Rev. E. J. Bernard is prosecuting a successful work. The whole mission in Demerara was organized as the Demerara Christian Conference, and the mission in the Barbadoes as the West Indian Christian Church. At that time there was a membership in Georgetown of 135.

A young man from British Guiana has been in this country studying and working among the colored people in the south, with a view to returning as a minister to his own people. Quite recently he has been ordained to the Christian ministry, and will go back to Berbice, about 150 miles from Georgetown to inaugurate and build up a church there, thus making three main churches and points in the South American field—Georgetown, Berbice, and Pinkett's Land in the Barbadoes. It should be said that a second church is about to be organized in the last named place.

So far the Mission just described has been fostered by the Afro-Union Christian Church, which gave Mr. Howell authority to proceed and organize.

British Guiana has about 302,000 people, most of them negroes, East Indian coolies, and half breeds. It is said that the greater part of the colored population has been won to a nominal Christianity by the missionary efforts of the Anglican Church. The Church of Scotland has fifteen ministers there, the Wesleyan Methodist twenty ministers, while the Congregationalists, Moravians and Catholics have churches, the latter embracing 24,000 adherents. Mr. Howell is convinced that on account of their liberal position and polity the Christians might quickly and easily build up a large church in British Guiana.

The Home Mission Department

REV. O. W. POWERS, D. D.,

Home Mission Secretary American Christian Convention.

The work of this department has not differed very much from that of the two preceding years. About thirty workers, in as many fields, have made reports and received assistance. The policy has been one of concentration, endeavoring to push to a finish the work in hand, rather than to occupy new territory or inaugurate new enterprises. Five churches have come to self-support during the year. Four new churches have been organized by our workers, besides two others that were organized with the understanding that they were to be aided this year.

A much better showing, on paper at least, could be made if we would push out into the inviting frontier fields. Opportunities in the Dakotas, Montana, Wyoming, Washington, Idaho, Colorado, Oklahoma, and Western Canada, are hard to resist. But to take advantage of these on the scale that they demand, with our limited funds, would mean the abandonment of important work already under way in older portions of our field, and inability to render assistance to imperilled churches in important centers, where changing conditions make such aid imperative. It is apparent that much more of this kind of work is opening before us. We must hold our ground in the cities of the East, and do what we can in the rapidly growing towns of the South and the Middle West, or find our present membership in these sections becoming depleted and demoralized.

In pursuance of this policy the department is giving aid to the churches like those in Boston and Lynn, Mass.; Manchester, New Hampshire; Bangor, Maine; Toronto, Ont.; the group of churches in Norfolk, Va.; a number in Ohio and Indiana; and the present year will aid the new organizations at Olney and Louisville, Illinois. These are all important, not only in themselves, but in their relation to other churches. To neglect points like these in favor of frontier territory, would be simply to change our base, without entering sections any more needy or fruitful.

The financial importance of the work in hand is manifest by the fact that the property owned by the churches now receiving aid as shown by the quarterly reports is valued at over two hundred thousand dollars. About the same number of churches reported two years ago that the estimated value of their property was one hundred and twenty thousand dollars. The increase is partly due to the erection of new buildings, and partly to the effort of the department to prevent loss of valuable assets held by churches that have become weakened by misfortune or changed conditions in the communities where they are located. To hold the ground where we are already established, is as important as to push into new fields.

At the same time we ought not to ignore the appeal of our own people, moving into new territory, for aid in giving them church homes and Christian surroundings. The "Wyoming Movement" and the settlement of our own people in South Dakota, Montana and Oklahoma have opened up fields which we should occupy in force, and at once.

The resources of the department are slowly increasing. But the average for the last three years is only eight thousand, five hundred dollars. Other organizations co-operating with us are giving over two thousand dollars a year to the same work. But to begin to do effective work in one-half of the fields open to us, these amounts should be doubled. At the same time doubling our resources will be likely to more than quadruple the work; for increased activity on the part of the Board will stimulate the co-operating organizations. Indeed, our work is already planned to that end, and with gratifying success in some directions.

The work of the Home Mission Secretary consists of two main departments: that of administration and supervision, and that of education and publicity. It has been the aim of the department to gain as much first-hand information concerning our mission points as possible, even making personal visitation when deemed advisable. The lack of field secretaries or superintendents is a serious one, and the secretary, although unable to do justice to so large a field, has made some attempt to fill the place of such workers.

In the circulation of mission literature, visitation of conferences, and other gatherings of our ministers and church workers, giving missionary sermons and addresses, and promoting a more intelligent interest in our enterprises, there is a field sufficient to tax the resources of a well organized department. In this direction lies the solution of our hardest problem, namely, the enlistment of new workers, and the enlargement of our financial support. Comparatively but few of our people have been active in the promotion of our Home Mission enterprise. It only needs a reasonable amount of co-operation and consecration to vastly increase our effectiveness. This last year of the quadrennium should be the best of all, in all lines of our denominational activity, but in no direction is there more insistent need of enlargement, than in this one of Home Missions.

Dayton, Ohio.

We can't choose happiness either for ourselves or for another; we can't tell where that will lie. We can only choose whether we will indulge ourselves in the present moment, or whether we will renounce that for the sake of obeying the divine voice within us—for the sake of being true to all the motives that sanctify our lives. I know this belief is hard; it has slipped away from me again and again; but I have felt that if I let it go forever, I should have no light through the darkness of this life.—George Eliot.

The Sunday-School Department

BY REV. T. S. WEEKS,

Sunday-School Secretary for the American Christian Convention.

We are beginning our Quadrennial year. We shall come up to the Convention in Albany next October, and it is quite important that we be able to make a full report for this Department, and this we hope to do if you do your part. I cannot report for the larger field except as you report for the smaller ones. If you fail to report your work for the Quadrennium by so much the American Christian Convention fails of its purpose.

The work of that meeting is to hear reports of work already done and to plan for work which we may do. We have nothing to report except what you have done, and the wisest plans of the Convention must fail except as they are carried out by you in the local churches and the conferences to which you belong.

There seems to be a very close relation between good work and good reports, for we get the best reports from the fields where the best work is done. This is not for advertising, but for information, and it is not gratuitous for your officers are entitled to the information, and furthermore, the life of the organization depends upon the closeness of contact between the parts. If we are not in touch with each other there is no possible communication of life and energy and interest, and the severed member or the whole body will die. Bear in mind that the severed member will suffer first and most while there is loss to all concerned. What then is the conclusion of the whole matter? It is this, We must have good reports this year.

Apropos to the study of the Gospel of Matthew which we shall take up in the opening year, we print the following poem by Charles Irvin Junkin, which first appeared in the Sunday-School Times:

The Madonna

On that holy night of old;
There was sound of angel voices,
And the stars looked down in wonder,
There was radiance of vision
Of a glory all untold;
From the soft Judean skies,
On the tears of tender gladness
In a mother's happy eyes,
As the hour of lonely sorrow,
With its terror, passed away
In the vision of a morrow
And the dawning of the Day.

There is sound of human voices,
In a world that's growing old;
There is lingering yet a darkness,
And the winds are bleak and cold;
And the stars look down in sadness
From a sky yet chill and gray,
For the King of Love is waiting
For a world that turns away
From the little son of Mary,
Who would banish grief and tears;
And the hour of sorrow lengthens,
And the day of pain and fears.

— — — — —

O maiden fair of Galilee!
O woman pure and sweet!
The shepherds and the Magi bowed
In reverence at thy feet.
O mother of the Son of God!
O woman ever blest!
Within the shelter of thine arms
The King found love and rest.

O maidens fair! O maidens true!
O women pure and sweet!
The noble and the peasant bow
In reverence at your feet.
O mothers of the sons of men!
O woman on the throne!
By love, by love, and motherhood,
The King shall find His own!

Many of our readers will be interested to know something of the history of the beginnings of Sunday-school work in this country, hence we give the following as reported by W. C. Pearce at the Convention in Toronto in 1905. For the following facts we are indebted largely to Dr. Henry Clay Trumbull, in his "Yale Lectures on the Sunday-School."

"For the credit of introducing the modern Sunday-school into the United States, there are many claimants. It would seem that in several places, on this side of the ocean, a Sunday-school which was started within a few years after Raikes' beginning in Gloucester, was continued for a time and then given up, without leaving an immediate successor. Thus a Sunday-school was organized under the direction of Bishop Asbury, at the house of Mr. Thomas Crenshaw, in Hanover County, Virginia, in 1786, yet but little is known of it save its beginning. A minute in favor of organizing Sunday-schools was adopted by the Methodist Conference in Charleston, S. C., in February, 1790, yet no record is found of Sunday-schools organized in consequence of this minute. In December, 1790, a meeting was called in Philadelphia to consider the importance of this work, and early in January, 1791, the First-day or Sunday-school Society was formed, for the purpose of securing religious instruction to poor children on Sunday. This society has continued in operation to the present day, yet its schools, like those of Robert Raikes, had paid teachers during the earlier years of its operation. In 1791 a Sunday-school was started in Boston; in 1793, one was started in New York City, by Katy Ferguson, a colored woman; in 1794 one was started in Paterson, N. J.; in 1797 Samuel Slater secured the organization of one in Pawtucket, R. I.; in 1800 one was started in Pittsburg, Pa.

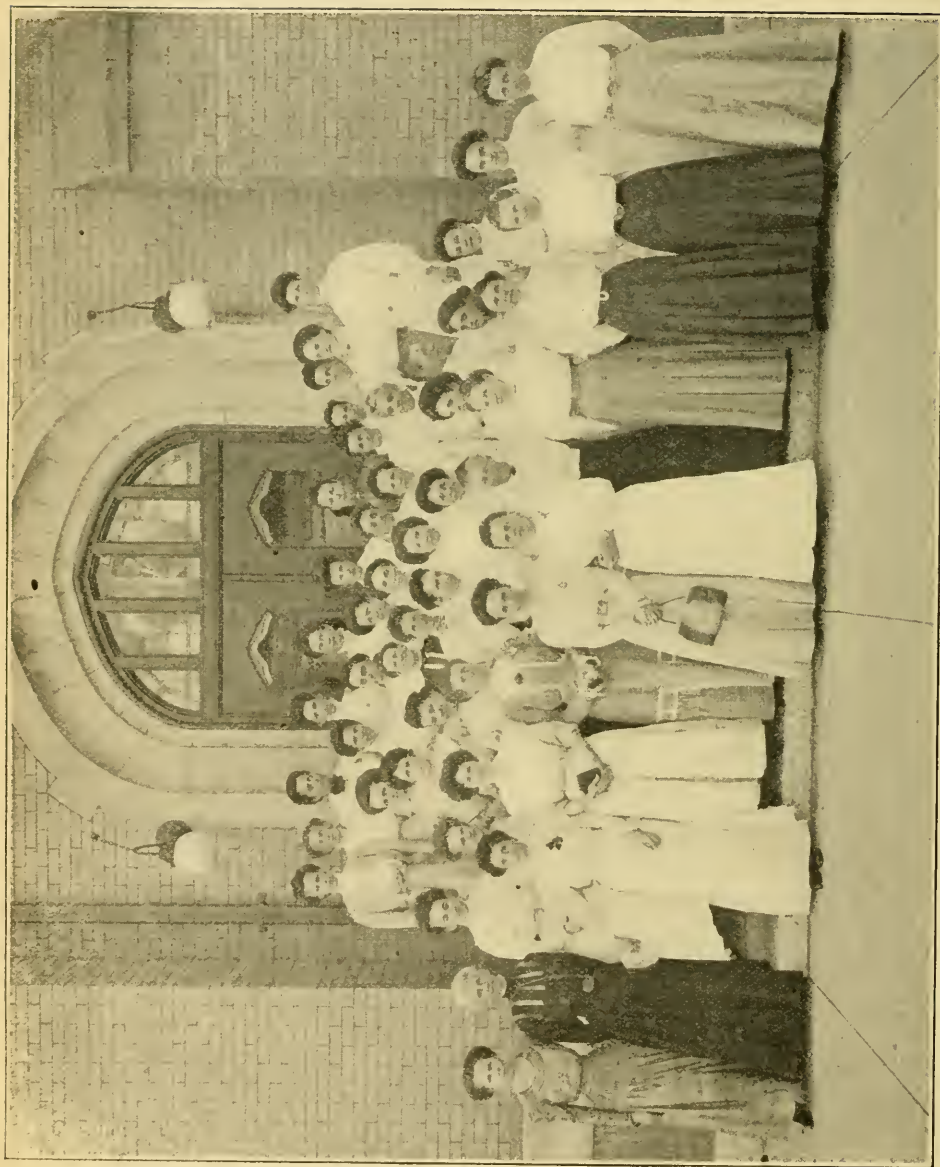

"In 1803 a Sunday-school was gathered by Mr. and Mrs. Divie Bethune, in New York City, and subsequently other schools were begun by them. Mrs. Bethune was a daughter of Mrs. Isabella Graham. Mr. Bethune had seen something of Raikes' work in England, and the New York school was started in imitation of that. In the same year with this beginning in New York, a Sunday-school was begun in Portsmouth, N. H., the year following one was started in Baltimore, Md. In 1809 a systematic Sunday-school movement was organized in Pittsburg, Pa.

"In 1810, Miss Hannah Hill and Miss Joanna B. Prince, of Beverly, Mass., gathered a company of about thirty neglected children who were accustomed to play about the wharves of Beverly on the Sabbath day, and taught them from the Bible. This grew later into a school for children of all families.

"The Rev. Robert May, from London, gave a new start to Sunday-schools in Philadelphia, 1811, which proved a beginning of permanent success. A local union for Sunday-school work was organized in New York in 1816, another in Boston the same year, and another in Philadelphia in 1817. These societies became the nucleus of the American Sunday-school Union, a national society, formed in 1824."

This society has organized more than 100,000 Sunday-schools, an average of three and one-half every day for eighty-five years, with 600,000 teachers and about 4,000,000 scholars. During the past ten years more than 1,100 churches have resulted from its schools.

At one of the anniversaries of this organization a conference of Sunday-school workers was held which resulted in the organization of a National Sunday-school Convention, and the first meeting of that body was held in New York, in Chatham Street Chapel, October 3, 1832. Two hundred and twenty delegates were present, representing fourteen of the twenty-four states and four territories of the Union. The second National Convention was held in Philadelphia, May 22, 1833. The third was held in Philadelphia, February 22-24, 1859, and the fourth in Newark, N. J., April 28; 1869. This meeting had the impulse given by the work of three men who have done more for the Sunday-school work of this country than any others, viz.: Rev. J. H. Vincent, H. Clay

Bible Class, Troy, Ohio, Mrs. George Humphreys, Teacher

Trumbull, and B. F. Jacobs, names that will forever stand at the head of the Sunday-school Roll of Honor in the world.

The fifth National was held in Indianapolis, April 16-19, 1872, and workers from Canada, Great Britain, and India were present at this meeting. Here began the movement in favor of the Uniform Lesson System.

The sixth National, which was also the First International Convention, was held in Baltimore, May 11-13, 1875.

Second International, Atlanta, Ga., April 17-19, 1878.

Third International, Toronto, Can., June 22-24, 1881.

Fourth International, Louisville, Ky., June 11-13, 1884.

Fifth International, Chicago, Ill., June 1-3, 1887.

Sixth International, Pittsburg, Pa., June 24-27, 1890.

Seventh International, St. Louis, August 30 to September 5, 1893. This was the second World's Convention. Your Secretary was present at this meeting, which was the greatest gathering of Christian workers he ever attended, and marked an epoch in his life.

The Eighth International Convention was held in Boston, June 23-26, 1896, the ninth International Convention in Atlanta, Ga., April 26-30, 1899; the tenth International Convention in Denver, Colo., June 26-30, 1902; the eleventh International Convention, Toronto, June 23-27, 1905; and the twelfth in Louisville, Ky., in June, 1908, where the forward step in favor of a graded lesson system met with sufficient favor to secure its adoption by the Convention.

This, in brief, is a history of the modern Sunday-school movement from its early beginning in the single school here and there to the great world convention, which is the greatest religious gathering of the world to-day.

Education---Denominational Achievements

BY REV. M. W. BAKER,

Educational Secretary American Christian Convention.

Worthy is the educational record which the passing of the year renders unalterable. Reason there is for rejoicing in both the general and the denominational achievements, yet better it might have been with more hearty support of the earnest leaders and wise plans. What leaders and what plans these are is just now a subject of extensive and intensive discussion. This debate has by its vigor testified to the unprecedented public concern in education. Little of importance has escaped examination. The system of education, the curricula, the efficiency of methods, the liberty of the investigator both in research and the declaration of results, the educators themselves individually and professionally, and each of the great schools—all have been subjects of much comment and some adverse criticism. Some of what has been published, especially by the less reliable or "popular" magazines, has evidently been for "journalistic" purposes, or in other words, that attention might be drawn to themselves. But without sensationalism, some of the more reliable journals have through the year carried worthy and instructive series. On the whole it requires courage and faith to take prominent place in the educational world, for whether one adhere to former practices or introduce innovations, he may count confidently on antipathy from the opposite extreme of the learned ranks.

Denominationally, education has not been without its problems, general and local, but, on the whole, reports show definite and decided progress. The new activity and equipment which followed re-organization at Starkey some ten years ago, at Defiance a few years later, at Merom, three years ago, and at Christian Biblical Institute a year later, has foiled this year at Kansas Christian College, and at Tokyo Theological School. Palmer has also, but more gradually, adjusted to new conditions and is growing healthfully and hopefully. Elon continues steadily on her well-laid plans for solid construction, with the organized and united support of our forces South, molding there the character of men and institutions. The McMaster colony is enthusiastic and fulfilling the hope of its organizers. Franklinton looks toward the cultivation of all the school farm not in timber, and to the construction of new buildings upon the land. Weanbleau continues in her work of training teachers and so influencing strongly the immediate locality.

The remarkable addition of five schools to the list of our institutions evinces unprecedented organizing activity. Of these new members of our school family, two, Jireh College and Oak Grove Academy, hope to be on their feet before spring. Tokyo Theological School was reorganized in January, 1909. Holland Institute began work in 1908, and the Japanese Girls' School in 1907. Of these Jireh, more than the others, owes its existence to encouragement from the Department of Education, though no funds have yet been appropriated for that enterprise. Both it and Oak Grove Academy are working on buildings and endowment.

The increasing demand of our people for education, and of our churches for trained men, lies back of this growth in educational institutions. Every one of the new schools has a field and meets a need. We are encouraged to hope that through them greater things will be undertaken and attained. The degree to which this hope can be realized will depend considerably upon the whole-hearted co-operation of all the churches in all the conferences.

The Importance of Our Publications

BY HON. O. W. WHITELOCK,

President Christian Publishing Association.

Politicians and political parties know the value of the newspaper, and those publications which get their principles before the people. Hence, the importance of having great metropolitan papers, like the New York World, New York Tribune, Chicago Record-Herald, Chicago Tribune, Indianapolis News, Indianapolis Star, etc., as expounders of the political gospels.

Elias Smith had a vision of the importance of getting the principles of religious liberty before the world. Others have had similar visions. These words of Elias Smith appeared in the Herald of Gospel Liberty when it was edited by him,—“Religious liberty is what my heart rejoices in, and what I long for all men to enjoy. I am bound as a lover of mankind to instruct them, and teach them the nature of it, according to my ability, and the opportunity given me to do it. This is the glorious liberty of the children of God—begun here, to be completed at the resurrection of the just. This is the liberty which the Son of God proclaimed to captives—founded on the perfect law of liberty wherewith Christ makes free indeed. This liberty was first preached by Jesus Christ, next by His apostles who learned of Him, and was known and enjoyed by the Christians, in the day of the apostles.”

His message was Religious Liberty. It was a consuming fire within him; it was born of God, and like Paul, he wanted the world to know his message. He saw that the message was too important to be limited to the lips of one man, so he established the first religious newspaper that his cherished principles of religious liberty, might have a more extended hearing than would have been possible by the word of mouth. Smith saw the importance of his newspaper as a transmitter of religious news, as well as a vehicle to carry abroad his religious principles. After a hundred years of religious journalism, everybody who has given the matter any serious consideration knows how absolutely important is the church paper. One would suppose that in this day of papers, magazines and periodicals, each one who is at all interested in the success of any certain church, and the acceptance of the church principles by a considerable number of people would be glad of the opportunity to circulate the paper that stands for the principles he claims to love, and would almost “fall over each other” to subscribe for such a paper. But unfortunately, it is not the case. But on the contrary, men who claim to love certain principles must be coaxed and solicited, and in many instances, must be given a premium, before they will subscribe for their own church paper.

Our pioneer preachers and the early fathers of the Christians had a better vision of the importance of a paper that stood for principles than many of us have to-day.

The difficulties in the way of establishing a church publication in the early day were very great. The people were poor and the mail facilities very limited and crude compared with the service we have to-day. But as the difficulties were great, the zeal, enthusiasm, and religious patriotism were also great in proportion to the necessities. We find our church forefathers, not only in New England, but in New York and in the West, planning and working with all their energy to establish newspapers and journals that the principles they loved so well might be gotten before the people and to the public ear. We had many papers in different sections of the country.

The history of the struggles of our forefathers to establish and publish these papers would make a very large book if written out in detail. The anxiety, heart-aches, and sacrifices that they endured, that the principles they loved and cherished might be placed before the world, should make the blush of shame come to our cheek, when we complain of poverty and hardships in these days of plenty and advantages. Their untiring efforts, and deep devotion to principles and the cause near their hearts, made success, in a large measure, come to them. Their principles were heaven born, were of Christ, and they took root in many a heart. The seed sown brought forth fruit. Religious Liberty and personal thought and interpretation found lodgment in the minds and hearts of many people.

These principles that were advocated by these religious patriots and pioneers of the Christian Church are to-day accepted in a large degree by the leading men in all Protestant churches, as was witnessed in the Great Church Congress in Philadelphia, held recently.

These principles are to-day taking the religious world. We can hardly measure the importance of our publications to the world to-day. They are absolutely necessary to be maintained and circulated for the perpetuation of the Christian Church as an organization. It is the Pioneer Church of Religious Freedom, and should not perish. Our principles will live, for they are founded on the solid Rock, Christ Jesus. They will prevail over all opposition, even though our Church, as an organized effort, passes into oblivion. But our church should never be numbered with the organizations of the dead past, until after the Millenium shall appear; and will not, if we of to-day are faithful to the trust reposed in us, and if the generations to come will have the backbone of our fathers. We must not be recreant, we must stand by our publications, for they are the heralds of our principles and we cannot succeed without them. The Herald of Gospel Liberty is the chief exponent of the doctrines of our church:

1. Christ, the Head of the Church.
2. Christian Character our only test of Church Fellowship.
3. The Bible our only rule of faith and practice.
4. Individual interpretation of the Scriptures the right and privilege of all.
5. The spiritual union of all of the followers of Christ.
6. Christian our only name.

As great helpers in the spread of these principles, the Christian Sun, of the Southland, and the Christian Vanguard, of Canada, must not be overlooked. As great auxiliaries, we have the Christian Missionary, the Sunday-School Herald, the Junior Herald, the Bible Class Quarterly, the Intermediate Quarterly, the Junior Quarterly and the Primary Quarterly.

These publications, together with our books, such as the "Centennial of Religious Journalism," "Kinkade's Bible Doctrine," "Scripture Doctrine," "Modern Light Bearers," "Autobiography of Abraham Snethen," and many more, which, if circulated and read, will lighten the world to a degree in the next century, that we can now but dimly foreshadow.

It has been well said, "Show me what a man reads, and I will show you what he is." The importance of our publications in the home, in the Sunday-school, and in the Church cannot be measured.

A "Get Together" Year

BY REV. J. PRESSLEY BARRETT, D. D.,

Editor Herald of Gospel Liberty.

We are already in the year of our next "quadrennial" gathering! Many voices are calling to us, some for one thing and some for another. The most urgent is the voice which is appealing to us as a people "to get together" for larger fruitfulness in the service of God. We have our differences, but above them all we may hear the call to "get together."

To be selfish, to seek our own, that is a temptation to many of us, but as the children of God we are under the most sacred obligation to forego the gratification of any such wish, and to see to it, at whatever cost, that in this year of our "quadrennial" gathering we "get together" and render the best service we have given in our day.

The history of a century is looking down upon us, and calling us, as by the hallowed associations, the sacrifices and sufferings of our forefathers, to forget the things which divide us and to come together in the name of the Lord for the best year's work in our history. The call comes as from the battlements of Heaven—it is mighty, and grows louder as the days and weeks come and go. Our Leader is giving the Church a command. It is: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," He seeks in the giving of this command, not only the good of the heathen world, but the rejuvenation of the church itself. He seeks a church which is without spot, or wrinkle, or blemish.

Our petty differences and misunderstandings are as chaff in the wheat—we need to forget ourselves that we may heed this call to "get together," and make the year 1910 the best in all our history. In doing such a marked service we shall do four things: We shall more honor our Lord, we shall show a larger appreciation of the labors and sacrifices of our fathers and our brethren who have gone before, we shall the more bless the world and the more surely do our part in building up the church, so making it ready for His coming as the Bridegroom, and if anything were yet lacking as an incentive, we have but to think of the great company of witnesses who are watching the conflict, in which we are engaged, with intense interest, watching for the least sign of coming victory.

Let us "get together" for personal consecration, and for the best year's work in winning souls for Christ, in building up the Church, and in giving the Gospel to the lands of heathen darkness. In such a consummation no doubt the angels and the great cloud of witnesses above would make Heaven ring with praise till the earth should hear and be joyful!

In the best days of Greece her greatest battlefield was Marathon. It was her greatest military glory, but it well nigh cost the life of her people, as a nation, so fierce was the conflict. Ever after that fearful battle, if Greece had internal dissensions, it was enough, if in the midst of dispute and division, some one would cry out: "Marathon!" It was as a signal for the cessation of all bickerings, and the summons to "get together" for immediate action in service for Greece, and from that moment they stood as one body, "together" for Greece! Brethren, shall the subjects of an earthly kingdom excel the members of the church militant in their service for God and man? The very thought is a shame to the holy name we wear!

Brethren of the Christian Church, whatever may be our differences, personally, or otherwise, let us listen to the voice of Jesus as He calls to us after the manner of the Grecians to remember Calvary! Under His call may the Holy Spirit move us to "get together" and move as one man in doing the work which God has given us to do in winning the world to Christ and in building up the Church among men. Let us keep in mind, dear brethren, the insignificance of our "likes" and "dislikes" as compared with the importance of this work, for when we all shall have passed on to the heavenly life, we shall see more fully the tremendous responsibility that now rests upon us and the injury we have done to the cause of Christ on earth by contending for that which divided us as a people.

I well remember how jealousy in my childhood days made me very unhappy. My older brother liked to be first in the privileges and honors of the home and on the farm, but I felt that I ought at least to rank as his equal in everything. Father often corrected us both for the ugly disposition we indulged. At times the feeling between us was intense, destroying not only our happiness, but largely our usefulness as well.

Time passed rapidly. Then father was called away. Brother and I were separated. He had become a man, and I went away to school. Then love began to assert itself and to bear fruit in our lives as brothers. Through this newly kindled love we began to see how little we had been toward one another, how we had grieved father and mother, and injured ourselves. Now in a fuller light of manhood I look back upon those days with deep regret. I see the harm of the way we felt and acted toward each other, and then we burdened father and mother with our folly. Now my prayer is: God forgive this ugliness and wipe it all out for Jesus' sake. You may say: "Oh, well, that was only the folly of childhood!" And it is true, but it was indeed far from what was right and good! How little in spirit and purpose I was, and yet did not then realize it.

This is a picture of what sometimes goes on in the Church. Our unseemly differences through us war against the cause of Christ. Oh, beloved, we are living in a great day, surrounded by many golden opportunities for service in the Lord's work! Let us lay aside every one of these weights which so easily beset us and destroy our usefulness as Christians, and let us run the race before us with patience and courage and faithfulness to Him who has called us. Let us forget our differences and reaching out after the prize of the high calling of God in Christ, let us "get together" and make the work of the year 1910 the best in our history as a people. Let us reach out after the gifts of the Spirit and press onward and upward to glory and to God. Such a year of getting together and such a service for our King will give us a day of rejoicing in Heaven.

Let us forgive and forget whatever has hindered our usefulness in the past, and in doing so, let us get together for the work of 1910, and upon our knees let us promise God that by His grace we will not knowingly allow our differences and dislikes to stand in the way of the best service He can command in us—that we will not stand in the way of the spread of the truth, or hinder the building up of the Church of Christ among men. Be it so! God help us!

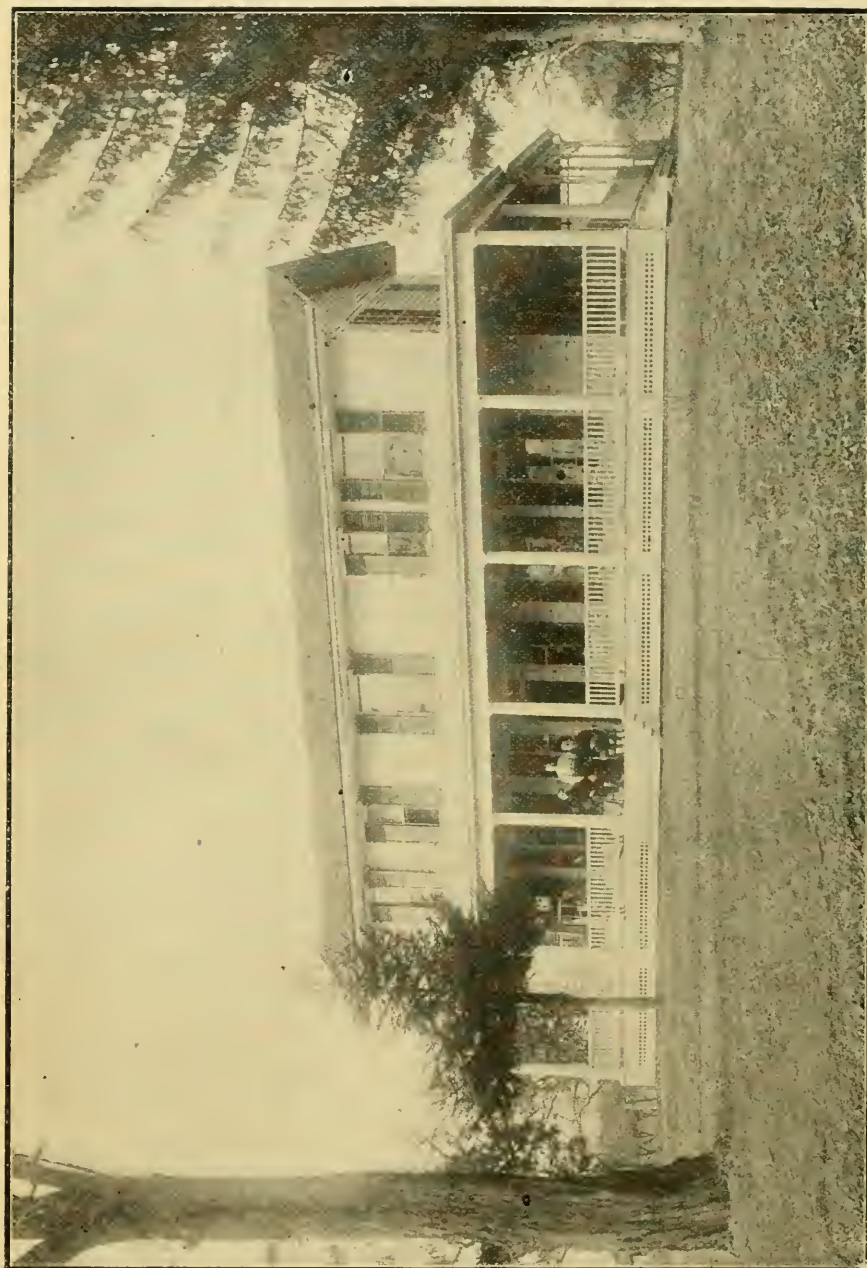

C. P. A. Building, Dayton, Ohio, Jan. 1, 1910.

The chief duty of a Christian lies in the quiet, unseen life of his own home, and if he does not learn there to practice that noble virtue of unselfishness—that highest type of charity which consists in daily and hourly consideration for the feelings of others—he will have lost one of the strongest resources and one of the most healing memories for all his future life.—F. W. Farrar.

Learn these two things: never be discouraged because good things get on so slowly here, and never fail daily to do that good which lies next to your hand.—George McDonald.

Aged Ministers' Home, Lakemont, N. Y.

The Aged Ministers' Home

BY REV. J. W. WILSON.

The Home was incorporated in 1894 and located at Castile, N. Y., but has recently been removed to Lakemont, N. Y. The previous location was fixed upon because it was the home of Mrs. L. L. Sellon, who was the moving spirit in the foundation of the Home and because suitable available property could be had at a bargain.

Through the generosity of several friends, the first cost of the Home, amounting to $1,300.00, was met, and later through the kindness of the late F. A. Palmer, of New York City, the Home was enlarged and a sum of ten thousand dollars was given as a partial endowment. This sum should be doubled at an early day by those who are able to do so. And any amount towards it will be cheerfully received, and acknowledged, as has been done heretofore in the case of many who have contributed to its support.

Considerable repairs have been made on the new purchase, and a commodious home well furnished, pleasantly situated, in close and easy walking distance to the Christian Temple at Lakemont, is now ready for the worthy needy ones from the East and the South, North, and West. There are four acres of ground for shade and flowers, for garden and fruit, with an abundance of fruit trees, berries and grapes.

The Christian Church at large should interest themselves in this Eden of comfort and plenty for old age; and should see that every worthy and needy one who is eligible to admission is encouraged and helped to go to the Home—this home of the blessed. The terms of admission will be cheerfully furnished by the Executive Committee, as follows: J. W. Wilson, president, No. 11 Liberty Street, Jamestown, N. Y.; Merton Phelps, secretary, Caledonia, N. Y.; James S. Frost, treasurer, Lakemont, N. Y.

Jamestown, New York.

Historical Sketch of East Hounsfield Christian Church and Parsonage

BY FLORA CLEVELAND

The Christian church of East Hounsfield is located four miles from Watertown, N. Y. The society was organized January 11, 1817, by Elder Lebbens Field, who died in 1879, at the age of 99 years and 8 months. He lived to see much good accomplished in his home neighborhood.

Services were held for many years in the schoolhouse, but finally the present church building was erected and dedicated to the worship of God on December 31, 1842. The dedication sermon was delivered by Elder Ira Allen of Potsdam.

Can we not imagine the feeling of gratitude, of joy and satisfaction it must have been to that little band of church workers and their helpers to have this place of public worship?

Elders Lebbens Field, Lyman Perry, Chas. Ayers and Kingsley served as pastors. Then followed a period of sixteen years, during which time Sunday-school was maintained and occasional preaching. In 1870 the church sheds were built and in 1875 eleven church members had the courage to call a pastor and with the aid of the people of the community and those who united with the church continued to keep a resident pastor here till 1891—sixteen years. During this period we had the following pastors: Revs. James E. Hayes, H. W. Pierce, Geo. E. Merrill and B. S. Fanton.

In 1880 the building was repaired and repainted, also remodeled inside. It was rededicated in August, 1880, Rev. L. Coffin of Newark, Wayne County, N. Y., preaching the sermon. Revs. G. S. Warren, George R. Torrey and the new pastor, Rev. H. W. Pierce, were also present.

In 1881 the church was incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, as The Christian Church of East Hounsfield.

The shade trees were planted in 1889 and named in honor of former pastors.

In 1891 we had a membership of fifty-five. Then followed a period of fourteen years in which Sunday-school was maintained most of the time and preaching at intervals.

Among the ministers were Elders Mace and Barney of the Christian denomination, also Revs. Sherman and A. K. McNaughton of the Presbyterian Church and Rev. Ayers of the Universalist Church.

In 1905-06 there remained thirty-one names on the record book, nearly one-half that number being non-residents. Church members and residents of the community united in repairing the building. It was painted, wall repaired, new carpet and cushions and papered inside.

Rev. Crissey, of the Presbyterian church, Dexter, served as pastor during the summer of 1906. In September a meeting was appointed by Rev. A. G. Lewis at Brushton, N. Y., to reorganize the New York Northern Christian Conference. Then followed a quarterly meeting at East Hounsfield in December. Revs. A. G. Lewis, B. M. Smith and F. L. Crissey were in attendance. Then followed a series of meetings in charge of Rev. B. M. Smith, during which several persons came out on the Lord's side.

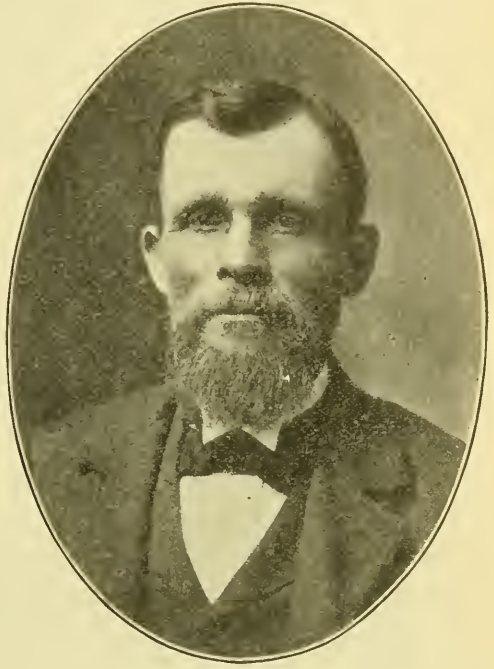

After due consideration, Rev. Smith was called to the pastorate of the church. He came in February, 1907, and continued with us a year, during which time nine additions were made to the church membership.

It was at this time that the need of a parsonage was called to the attention of the people. Rev. B. M. Smith proposed the parsonage fund and gave the first dollar. The church accepted the proposition and Flora Cleveland was appointed treasurer of the fund. A subscription paper was put in circulation and church members, people of the community and old friends, all united in helping to raise the necessary funds. The pastor compiled and printed a historical booklet of the church, which has already netted a neat little sum for the benefit of the parsonage.

Rev. B. M. Smith was succeeded in the pastorate by Rev. S. H. McKeene, who is still with us.

The parsonage site of two acres was given by M. A. Cleveland, the present owner of the Hezekiah Field farm from which the church site was given in 1842.

L. F. Allen, F. M. Kirby, F. W. Allen, M. A. Cleveland, F. E. Ives, with many others, are among the generous contributors to the fund.

The parsonage was erected the summer of 1909 at a cost of $2,200 and dedicated in September, as the home of the pastors of the Christian church of East Hounsfield. Much credit is due the Building Committee - B. J. Ives, F. B. Taylor and Geo. McMullen, also the contractor, Arthur Basha, for the successful completion of the work.

In looking over the list of names from 1817 on down through the years, I find two and three generations of the Field and Ives families and four generations of the Allen family. Lebbens F. Allen united with the church in 1851, fifty-eight years ago. He has been church clerk fifty-five years and on the Board of Trustees thirty-nine years—a long record of unbroken fidelity to the work of our Master and is to-day one of the most regular attendants at church and Sunday-school.

Parsonage at East Honnsfield

The New York Northern Christian Conference, in which this church was located, was organized in 1831. In 1835 there were eighteen active churches within its borders. At the last annual session, 1909, only four churches were reported, and only two support a regular pastor. They are widely separated, but working together for the maintenance and upbuilding of the Christian Church. At the seventy-eighth annual session the conference became incorporated under the laws of New York State.

This outline of dates and events is given, but the true history of this church (and others) is written in the hearts and lives of present and past generations and only our Heavenly Father knows the effect of the moral force in the community.

In Scotland they call the little children "bairnies." An old woman was noticed bending to pick up some scattered bits of broken glass from the roadway. Somebody said, "Oh, let them be! What harm will they do?" But she answered, "Oh, they might hurt the bairnies' feet." So she bent her poor old back to keep their feet from aching. How many of us are willing to do something that seems hard that we may help others?—Selected.

A GROUP OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS OF THE BURLINGTON (N. C.) CHRISTIAN CHURCH

As they assembled at the church on Thanksgiving Day, preparatory to going in a body to the Alamance County Alms House with a Thanksgiving dinner for the inmates, both white and colored, according to their annual custom. Dr. Fleming, the pastor, says it is always a joyous occasion and a glad privilege thus to carry sunshine into the lives of these people who have no other home than that known in this section as the "Poor House." This year the King's Daughters and others joined in with the Endeavorers and a bounteous dinner was served. During the summer they hold open air meetings with these unfortunate fellow-pilgrims. For the lack of a suitable room these services have to be discontinued in winter. How blessed thus to serve and comfort the needy!

The real estate has enhanced in value more than the other property has depreciated, and, as the real estate is the chief value, the property is worth more than the inventory would indicate.

We congratulate the Board, therefore, upon the healthy and steady growth of the Institution.

Next Session will meet at Suffolk, Va., Tuesday before the first Sunday in May, 1910. The selection of the place was left to the Executive Committee, which will also prepare the program and order of business.

President, Rev. W. W. Staley, D. D., Suffolk, Va.
Vice-President, Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., Elon College, N. C.

Secretary, P. J. Kernodle, Richmond, Va., 1012 E. Marshall St.

Assistant Secretary, Rev. I. W. Johnson, Suffolk, Va.

The home mission work of this convention, as shown by the report of the president of the Christian Missionary Association at the last meeting of the Southern Convention, is in successful operation. The Convention has recommended the localizing of this association, and the organization of conference associations on the same general plan. The Association, in addition to aiding special points, maintains two general missionaries in its bounds. In accordance with the Convention recommendations, all the conferences have organized local Conference Missionary Associations. These associations have been officered in the manner of the Convention Association. By the plans thus inaugurated the funds for home missions will be greatly increased. As regards foreign missions, there is a steady growth of interest. A special call was made upon the conference for missions at the late session of the Convention.

The report of the Committee on Schools and Colleges, made at Greensboro, N. C., shows Elon College to be highly successful and the endowment increased to $30,000. That the churches composing the Convention pay a fixed sum annually of $1,800 for Elon College. Thus the college is freed from embarrassment as to its future progress. In 1904, it was decided to build a new dormitory to cost about $20,000, with modern equipments. This building is now completed at a cost of about $40,000. It contains music rooms and art studio, in addition to accommodations for about one hundred young ladies. Prof. E. L. Moffitt, Elon College, N. C., is president of the college, and its financial affairs are entrusted to him. The president is now conducting a campaign raising an endowment of $50,000. Already ten men have given $1,000 each, and quite a number have given $500 each.

The Orphanage, projected by the Convention, is now opened, and is under the management of Rev. J. L. Foster, superintendent, Elon College, N. C. He is also the authorized financial agent.

The Christian Sun, purchased by the Southern Convention, is edited by Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., who was re-elected.

STARKEY SEMINARY

LAKEMONT, NEW YORK

FIRST-class boarding school for young people of both sexes, from thirteen years old and upward. The situation of the school is unrivaled, planted on the verge of the plateau overlooking Seneca Lake, and in full view of Watkins, the site of the famous Watkins Glen.

Owing to the generosity of the late Hon. Francis A. Palmer, of New York, the school has possession of a magnificent new building, equipped with modern appliances for convenience and comfort. Ten teachers, specialists in their several departments compose the Board of Instruction, and the students are prepared for any college, trained for business or take finishing courses in art, elocution and vocal and instrumental music. The health record of the school is above the average, and the distance from all demoralizing influence tends to promote moral and intellectual health. Special watchcare is taken of the girls, who are under the supervision of five lady teachers. Terms are very moderate, while the table is kept up to the standard of schools that charge twice or thrice the Starkey rate.

For catalogue or information address the president.

"WON BY ONE"

The Call to Personal Evangelism

BY REV. M. T. LAMB

A striking and altogether unusual little book on wide-awake and progressive evangelism whose central thought is "Preach the Gospel to Every Creature." It has won signal success under the title "Every Creature," but we have named it more significantly, "Won by One," for it convincingly lays upon every Christian preacher or layman, the obligation of personal individual work in carrying out Christ's great commission. It is a book to be bought by dozens and hundreds for distribution.

If your church is at a standstill spiritually, get your people to read this book. The result will show a tremendous return on the investment. Get a copy for yourself at once.

The Chain Reference Bible

BY REV. FRANK C. THOMPSON, D. D. PH. D.

Topical Reference System Applied to Bible Study by A Unique Literary Invention of a Series of Chains

A Chain is a series of references on a Topic, a Place, a Character or a Custom, each reference being so linked on the margin with the one that follows it as to lead the reader steadily forward toward the end of the series; the design being to facilitate the rapid following of a line of thought.

The Chain-Reference system includes in its scope the following distinct features rendering it invaluable to Bible students:

1. The Chain Feature. A unique literary invention which has no equal as an aid for facilitating Bible study.

2. The Expository Feature. The topics on the margin are concise statements of the main thoughts of the verse and hence are both suggestive and expository.

3. The Biographical Feature. The reader is enabled to readily trace the prominent events in the life of each important Bible character.

4. The Historical Feature. The facts concerning every prominent place, manner or custom are made at once accessible by the use of marginal chains.

5. The Analytical Feature. Each topic that will admit of it receives a two-fold treatment, spiritual and physical, and all important subjects are carefully sub-divided, and each sub-division specially treated.

The Chain-Reference system makes the Bible self-interpreting.

The references, being topical, follow a definite line of thought.

The system adopted is a great time saver.

Invaluable to The Busy Man. Commentaries, Concordances and Text-books can be discarded.

The Sunday-school Teacher. Giving rapid transit through the Bible on any topic.

The Minister or Evangelist. Furnishing a series of texts or a Bible reading on any one of a thousand subjects.

The Devotional Reader is led through the choicest portions of the Word on any theme.

A perfect revelation to me. I advise all who love God's Word to secure this edition.—Dr. J. W. Chapman.

To preachers, Bible readers, Sunday-school teachers and other workers, the Bible is worth its weight in gold.—Gipsy Smith.
